

BSA Grand Centennial Parade

When: July 25, 2010

Where: Washington DC

What: A Once in a Lifetime Opportunity for Scouts of all ages

The Old Colony Council needs a group of Scouts and Scouters to represent Old Colony Council in this parade commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the BSA. This is open to Cub Scouts (must attend with a parent), Boy Scouts, and Venture Scouts.

The basic plan is as follows:

July 23rd - Travel by Amtrak or Bus from Boston to Washington DC
Dormitory style accommodations at local university

July 24th – Free Activities in Washington DC.

- National Capital Area Council is presenting a showcase of "All Things Scouting" on the National Mall between the Washington Monument and the World War II Memorial. This will be a continuous 16 day presence in which our very own Scouts will demonstrate every aspect of 100 years of Scouting in the Nation's Capital, including Scoutcraft, merit badges, camping, service projects, and geo-Scouting.
- Smithsonian Museum
- Visit various memorial and monument sites

July 25th – The Grand Centennial Parade with thousands of Boy Scouts from all over the US

July 26th – Leave Washington DC and Return to Boston
Possible Morning Activities in Washington DC (to be determined)

Cost: $375 per person

Important: We need a commitment by May 26th in order to confirm reservations for transportation and accommodations
